Case No.: C-2011000036

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO RECONSIDER

1. On August 4, 2014 an order entitled “Omnibus Order” was issued by the undersigned presiding officer. This order resolved the matters in conflict raised by the Bureau of Securities’ (“BSR”) Motion for Entry of Default Order against the HealthTrust, Inc. (“HT”), and Property Liability Trust, Inc. (“PLT”). The order summarized the previous administrative proceedings in this matter to facilitate context, incorporated into the order the terms and conditions of a consent decree entered into by the parties, and addressed an intervenors’ motion seeking to receive a portion of the funds to be received by the HT from the PLT.
2. On September 3, 2014 counsel for the intervenors filed a motion for reconsideration of the August 4, 2014 order.
3. On September 5, 2014 counsel for the respondent HT filed an objection to the intervenors’ motion for reconsideration.
4. The undersigned presiding officer reviewed the contents of each submission.
5. The undersigned presiding officer reviewed the contents of the omnibus order issued on August 4, 2014.
6. The undersigned presiding officer reviewed each assertion of error advanced by the intervenors’ counsel in the motion to establish that the omnibus order is unlawful or unreasonable. Counsel’s reliance on partial statements within the original order, or dependence on designations of emphasis lacking fair context within the original order are of little support for his position.
7. Upon completion of the review the initial order is found to be neither unlawful nor unreasonable.

Therefore, the intervenors’ motion for reconsideration is denied.

So ordered, this 8th day of September, 2014
